Kuraray Co. is a Japanese manufacturer of chemicals, fibers, and advanced materials. The company maintains a US presence through its New York office. Kuraray received FDA 510(k) clearances from total submissions, with all submissions focused on Dental devices. The company's regulatory activity spans from 1985 to 1999, establishing a historical record in dental bonding and restorative materials. The cleared devices reflect Kuraray's specialization in dental adhesive systems and bonding technologies. Products include resin cements, surface activators, and liner bond systems...
